

Troop 220

2010 Summer Camp Reservations

All scouts are encouraged to attend summer camp where they have an opportunity to learn new scouting skills and make major progress toward advancement. Troop 220 will be offering two summer camps. A limited number of spaces are available, so be ready to sign-up beginning December 8, 2009 with your check or cash (exact change, please).

First Camp: Camp John Mensinger (July 11 - 17, 2010)

This camp is located in the Stanislaus National Forest at the 4800-foot level above Beardsley Reservoir and offers programs for Scouts of all ages. The Woodsman program provides an opportunity for younger scouts to complete a number of requirements toward Tenderfoot, Second Class and First Class ranks. There are over 30 Merit badges, taught in a half-day, one-day, or two-day format which allows older scouts to earn a variety of merit badges during their camp week. Activities such as biking, hiking, sailing and boating, climbing and rappelling and shooting sports are offered for the older scouts.

Estimate Cost: $270.00* (Additional fees for gas may be collected)

This date and price have not yet been confirmed in writing by the Greater Yosemite Council.

Cancellation Policy: No refunds given. (Exceptions may be made for medical conditions).

Second Camp: Holcomb Valley Scout Ranch (August 8 – 14, 2010)

This summer camp is nestled in the San Bernardino Mountains near Big Bear Lake. Wrangler Program: Ride the open range on horseback. Learn to rope their “livestock”. Earn the Horsemanship & Animal Science Merit Badges. Mountain Bike Madness: Learn to negotiate some of the toughest terrain in the west. Explore the back roads of the San Bernardino National Forest. Work on the Cycling Merit Badge. Go on an overnight bike trek (15 years old and up).

Cost: $355.00* (Additional fees for gas may be collected)

Cancellation Policy: No refunds given. (Exceptions may be made for medical conditions).

Scouts must be active in the Troop in order to participate in any camping activities and dues must be up to date. Also, Troop 220 has a limited summer “campership” fund available to provide help in paying camp fees. If you need assistance, please write a letter and give it to the Troop Committee Chairperson for consideration. Letters are confidential.
